DETAILED ACTION

Drawings

Figure 8 should be designated by a legend such as --Prior Art-- because only that which is old is illustrated. See MPEP § 608.02(g). Corrected drawings in compliance with 37 CFR 1.121(d) are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. The replacement sheet(s) should be labeled "Replacement Sheet" in the page header (as per 37 CFR 1.84(c)) so as not to obstruct any portion of the drawing figures. If the changes are not accepted by the examiner, the applicant will be notified and informed of any required corrective action in the next Office action. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 3-7, 13 and 14 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being clearly anticipated by Brozek (US 2267370).

Brozek (figures 1-5) teaches slide fastener structure including clamped on teeth 11, tape that is folded over a cord 12 and stitched 15, 16.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 8-11 and 15-18 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Brozek (US 2267370) in view of Watanabe et al. (US 5023394).

Brozek (figures 1-5) teaches slide fastener structure including clamped on teeth 11, tape that is folded over a cord 12 and stitched 15, 16. The difference is that the tape isn't plated. However, Watanabe et al. (figure 2) teaches plating the fibers of a woven tape with a material so that the tape acts as an electromagnetic shield and the teeth of the zipper are also metal. As electromagnetic shielding is important for many products, it would have been obvious to modify the fastener of Brozek so that the tape is plated and the teeth are metal in view of Watanabe et al. teaching that it is desirable to provide such structure.

Claims 12 and 19 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Brozek (US 2267370) in view of Masataka (JP 2001-204515).

Brozek (figures 1-5) teaches slide fastener structure including clamped on teeth 11, tape that is folded over a cord 12 and stitched 15, 16. The difference is that the tape isn't coated by a fire resistant material. However, Masataka teaches making the tapes from a fire resistant material. Therefore, as fire resistant coatings are well known in the art, it would have been obvious to use such coatings on the fastener of Brozek in view of Masataka teaching that it is desirable to make the tape fire resistant and applicant is given Official Notice that a fire resistant coating is well known as the equivalent of making the fabric of fire resistant material.
